

OLD AGE TAKES NOTED CHEMIST

DR. LEONIDAS H. HURTT IS DEAD AT HIS RESIDENCE
IN LOS ANGELES

WELL KNOWN HERE

OWNER GLENDALE TRANSFER
COMPANY; FUNERAL TO BE HELD ON WEDNESDAY

After a long life of usefulness and service for others, Dr. Leonidas H. Hurtt, noted chemist and owner of the Glendale Transfer & Storage company, died at his home, 3816 Ingraham street, Los Angeles, at 6 a. m. yesterday.

Death was due to infirmities of old age following a stroke which occurred last March. Up until two months ago, however, Dr. Hurtt had been in charge of the active management of the Glendale Transfer & Storage company and had taken an active interest in the business growth of Glendale.

The career of Dr. Hurtt from the time he was forced out into the world to battle his own way at the early age of 8 years until he became president of the Pond's Extract company of New York and London, is a remarkable one and, because of the doctor's modesty, known only to his most intimate friends.

Mother Dies When He Is 6
Dr. Hurtt was born November 17, 1842, in Tarrilton, Ohio. His mother died when he was 6 years old and the home was broken up.

At the outbreak of the Civil war young Hurtt enlisted as a drummer boy at Columbus, O., and after taking part in the entire campaign, was honorably discharged a commissioned officer.

He then took up the study of chemistry and a few years later invented the still used in the making of Pond's extract, now known all over the world. He was also the first chemist to distill glycerine. This led to the manufacture of many chemical soaps necessitating the establishment of laboratories in all the leading cities of the world, including London, Paris, St. Petersburg, Rome and others.

Dr. Hurtt was always interested in young people, having educated and put through college no less than forty-five ambitious young men and women. He was also president of the Student's Dramatic club of New York City.

Funeral Services Wednesday
He came to Glendale fifteen years ago and up until a few years ago, made his home here. He then removed to Los Angeles, but was expecting to return to this city when his death occurred.

Dr. Hurtt is survived by the widow, Mrs. Sarah Hurtt, and one sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilcox, both of Los Angeles. He has many friends in both Glendale and Los Angeles to mourn his passing.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 a. m. at the Little Church of the Flowers in charge of the Glendale order of Elks. Interment will be made in the Forest Lawn cemetery. Pulliam & Kiefer are the funeral directors.

OIL COMPANY

SYNDICATE IS ORGANIZED AND
DRILLING TO BE STARTED;
P. L. FERRY PRESIDENT

Organization of the Glendale Oil Syndicate was perfected at a meeting held recently. The syndicate has secured a large tract of land on the northern and eastern outskirts of the city and is putting down a well on what is known as the Ross and Thom ranch, close to the old reservoir.

Five directors were chosen, these being Peter L. Ferry, Harry White, John Bretz, Jr., W. I. Bower and C. H. Henry. The directors then met and elected Mr. Ferry as president of the syndicate.

Practically all of the equipment necessary to the drilling has been delivered, Mr. Henry stated today, and, it is expected, actual drilling will start the last of this week.

Further Testimony Is Given that Advertising In The News Wins

Editor Evening News—We want to add our testimony to that of others as to the value of your paper as an advertising medium. We have spent considerable money with you in advertising and we find that it was money well spent. We got splendid results. In fact, we did the largest volume of business this year in the history of this store.

We are convinced that if the merchants of Glendale will advertise right they can keep at home a great deal of the business that now gets away. Our people want to be loyal to Glendale, we are certain, and it is up to us merchants to do our part.

FAMILY REUNION

FIVE BROTHERS AND THEIR SISTER MEET FOR FIRST TIME ON CHRISTMAS

"For the first time in my life—and I'm the oldest—my four brothers and my sister met at Christmas," said H. L. Miller, well-known Glendale realty and insurance man, this morning. Then he explained why. He said that he had left home before the youngest member of the family was born and that, in the years that followed, some member of the family was always absent at Christmas.

But yesterday the five Miller brothers and their sister gathered at the home of T. M. Miller in Alhambra and, for the first time, all were together on Christmas. They held a fine celebration and enjoyed a dinner.

The five brothers are H. L. Miller of Glendale, Ed Miller of Lindsey, Calif., John R. Miller of Kansas City, Mo., T. M. Miller of Alhambra, Angus Miller of Long Beach, Calif., and the sister is Mary Miller Green of Los Angeles. They are the survivors of the Miller family. Others in the family reunion were Mrs. John R. Miller and Mrs. T. M. Miller.

A turkey dinner was served and the day proved a most enjoyable one for all present.

OCCUPY HOME

MR. AND MRS. LESTER RUSSELL
OCCUPY NEW RESIDENCE IN TIME FOR CHRISTMAS

A pleasing Christmas present was that secured by Mr. and Mrs. Lester Russell, the former of the Russell Furniture Manufacturing company of Central avenue and San Fernando road. They took possession of a six-room house, with bath and screen porch, erected for them by Benjamin H. Conner, the contractor, the fine home being on the corner of Cedar street and Orange Grove avenue.

The house was constructed by Mr. Conner in just twenty-seven days and a few hours, the work being rushed so that the home could be turned over to Mr. and Mrs. Russell on Christmas eve.

GIVEN WATCH

CHIEF A. H. LANKFORD, HEAD
OF FIRE DEPARTMENT, IS HONORED BY FORCE

Christmas proved a most pleasing one for A. H. Lankford, chief of the Glendale fire department, for Santa Claus brought him a fine watch and chain.

On the back of the watch were engraved Chief Lankford's initials and on the inside cover were inscribed the words: "Xmas 1920, Members of G. F. D. to Chief A. H. Lankford." The gold watch and chain are very attractive and the fire department head is highly pleased with the gift. He is displaying it to his friends and they are extending their congratulations.

PUMPING PLANT COST

MODIFICATION IN PLANS ON GRAND VIEW AVENUE PIPE
LINE IS AUTHORIZED

Harry Lynch, engineer of the public service department, at the meeting of the board of city trustees last Thursday night, presented a communication giving the status of the water bond fund, showing the total amount of bonds unsold, $146,000. Of the bonds sold there is an unappropriated balance of $18,059.12. From this unappropriated balance and from the sale of $146,000 bonds, still remaining, estimates have been presented for expenditures for reservoirs, pipe lines, etc., amounting to $146,841.50. The communication stated that there has within the last few days been a very marked decline in the price of iron and steel which seemed to indicate that future work will be let out at a much lower price than has lately prevailed.

Engineer of the public service department reported on bids previously referred to him for cast iron pipe making certain recommendations upon which the board took no action.

Pumping Plant Cost Estimate.
Engineer of the public service department presented an estimate cost of the Vine avenue pumping plant which showed same to be $4,600.

On motion of Trustee Stephenson the following resolution was adopted, all trustees present voting aye:

"It is hereby declared and determined that in the opinion of the board of trustees that the cast iron pipe fittings and equipment for drain and discharge lines for the proposed Verdugo road reservoir and miscellaneous pipe for the proposed new unit at the pumping plant can be purchased at a lower price in the open market than by contract to the lowest bidder—and that it is to the best interests of the city of Glendale

EDW. BIDWELL PASSES AWAY
AT HIS HOME; FUNERAL TO BE HELD TUESDAY

Edward Bidwell passed out of this life on December 24, at his home, 203 Howard street, where he had lived for the past fifteen years.

Mr. Bidwell was 62 years of age. There are left to mourn his loss nine children: Mrs. Kate Gildman, Mrs. Lillian Well, Edward, Herbert, George, Harvey, Hastings, Charles and Ethel Bidwell. Mrs. Well has been keeping house for her father and the children, all of whom live at home with the exception of the other married daughter, Mrs. Gildman.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon in the chapel of the Jewel City Undertaking company, Reverend Dr. Cornell officiating, and interment will take place in Grand View cemetery.

Accident Unavoidable, Investigation Displays

Ernest A. Lawrence, driver of the automobile that struck and injured Lorna Jean Forsyth, aged 5 years, Thursday evening, states that none of the other children accompanying the child attempted to cross the street. They stood on the curb, he says, and when the little Forsyth girl started to run in front of the machine he made every effort to avoid running over her.

The accident was the first Lawrence has had in his years of driving and the police investigation made directly after the accident showed that it was unavoidable. The injured girl is responding to treatment.

Visits Family Home In Glendale Over Xmas

Earl Stanley Stephenson of Leimore, Calif., visited his family home in Glendale for the first time in several years, being here over the Christmas holidays. During the war he was with the navy and crossed the ocean four times. As he was about to make his fifth voyage, he was taken ill and was removed to a hospital. The boat he was scheduled to sail on was sunk by a torpedo.

EXTENSION FOR WATER SERVICE

FOUR INCH MAIN WILL BE INSTALLED IN MAGNOLIA
AVENUE BY CITY

LAND IS APPRAISED

VALUE IS FIXED ON PORTION OF JUDGE ROSS PROPERTY
AS RESERVOIR SITE

At the meeting of the board of city trustees held last Thursday night, T. W. Watson, city manager, reported that Mr. Hague of 1227 South Central avenue has made application for water service on Magnolia avenue, west of Central. The installation of this service will require the laying of about 400 feet of main. The city manager recommends the installation of a four inch main on Magnolia avenue, extending from Central avenue, westerly about 200 feet, and further recommended that the city lay the service main extending from the proposed district main extension, to the west terminus of Magnolia avenue, providing that the owners of abutting property agree to pay the cost thereof. On motion of Trustee Stephenson, recommendation of the city manager approved and extension ordered to be made.

Appraisal Judge Ross Property.
The city manager presented a communication to the effect that the appraisal committee had increased the amount of their appraisal on the Judge Ross property on Verdugo road, desired by the city for reservoir purposes, from $6,000.00 to $6,500.00. In the opinion of the city manager and other citizens with whom he had consulted, the price of $7,000 named by Judge Ross is not excessive. Later in the meeting the property was ordered purchased.

The city manager stated that the general service fund should have an addition made to it of $1,000 from the budget fund and on motion of Trustee Stephenson, it was ordered that the sum of $1,000 be transferred from the general budget fund to the general service fund as a loan.

The city marshal reported the appointment of James Browne and A. Capfer as patrolmen, each at a salary of $115 per month, and on motion the same was confirmed.

The city attorney presented a communication from the State Railroad Commission reporting the approval of Ordinance 402 of the city of Glendale, granting permission to the Southern Pacific Railroad Co. to cross the San Fernando road with a spur track; a number of conditions being attached to the permit.

Dayton Court Is Continued.
On motion of Trustee Bartlett, the hearing in regard to improvement of Dayton Court was continued for one week at 8 p. m.

DR. A. O. CONRAD TAKEN BY DEATH

PIONEER PHYSICIAN HERE IS DEAD AFTER ILLNESS OF CONSIDERABLE TIME

PIONEER OF VALLEY

OVER 30 YEARS IN SECTION
AND WELL KNOWN; FUNERAL SERVICES HELD TODAY

Dr. Andrew O. Conrad, one of the most widely known physicians in southern California and a pioneer resident of Glendale, died at his home, 1250 South Glendale avenue, on Christmas day.

Dr. Conrad came to Glendale long before there was the slightest indication of a city here, and has practiced medicine in the San Fernando Valley for more than thirty years. He was a pioneer in X-ray work in California, and was burned twelve years ago in the course of his experiments with the rays. From the wound a cancer developed, which finally caused his death.

Dr. Conrad was born in San Francisco March 18, 1868. He was a graduate of the California Medical college of that city. He was a member of the Glendale Physicians' club, the Glendale Elks, Knights of Pythias, Newport Harbor Yacht club.

The doctor's wife died six years ago. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. W. J. Lindenfeld, of Fillmore, California, and a brother, Charles R. Conrad, of Newhall, California.

Funeral services were held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the L. G. Scovren chapel, under the auspices of the Elks' lodge and interment was made in Forest Lawn cemetery.

Youngest Member of Class
When 21 years old, Dr. Conrad graduated from the California Medical college and was the youngest student to receive a diploma and also the greatest honors.

In the passing of Dr. Conrad, not only relatives but the whole valley mourns the loss of a tried and true friend. He gave his life that others might live, for in his experiments to help others he received the burn that, eventually, caused his death.

The services this afternoon were impressive with the Elks ceremonies and a large number of friends were either in person or attendance or represented by a wealth of floral offerings.

LEGION WINNER

SOLDIERS DEFEAT ELKS IN BASEBALL GAME PLAYED
ON CHRISTMAS DAY

The baseball game played Christmas day on the local high school grounds was won by the American Legion from the Elks by a score of 5 to 2. There were seven innings played. Between twelve and fourteen players were tried out by the Elks in order to find out who the real baseball artists were, as the lodge is endeavoring to get a first grade team to put on the field. The score was due to the fact that "Lefty" Herman, at the opportune time, sent the ball over the fence with two men on bases.

OF THE EYE OF A FROG
The smallest camera in the world which has actually "taken" pictures is doubtless the eye of the frog, says Boys' Life. It has been found that if a frog is kept in the dark for some time the retina of the eye, on being dissected, is found to have a purple reddish color which fades away or becomes bleached on exposure to daylight. If the eye be placed in front of a window and left there, or "exposed" for some time, and then fixed in a 4 per cent solution of alum the optogram is partially fixed and retains an inverted picture of the window. It is claimed that by a similar photographic process the last picture or image retained by the eye of a dead man or animal may be preserved.

Huston Thompson, member of the federal trade commission, succeeds Victor Murdock as chairman of that body.

BY D. H. SMITH

Manager, Brand Boulevard Branch, Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank.

The formal opening recently of the latest branch of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank—the ninth—at Eighth and Olive streets, Los Angeles, marks another milestone in the march of progress of this bank.

The tenth branch is scheduled to open on or about January 10. It will be the Wilshire Boulevard Branch and will be located in the new Ambassador Hotel, Los Angeles.

The First National Bank of Los Angeles and the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank are under one ownership. A brief review of the growth leading up to their present strength will be of interest at this time.

The First National Bank of Los Angeles was granted its charter in August, 1880, taking over at that time the business of the Commercial Bank, which had been established in 1875. The capital was $100,000, the reserve $50,000 and deposits $900,000. The bank was then located at Main and Temple streets. In 1901 the bank was moved to Second and Spring streets and the capital was increased to $500,000, with surplus and profits of $350,000 and deposits about $3,000,000. By September, 1905, the deposits increased to $7,750,000.

On the latter date the stockholders of the First National Bank, the Los Angeles National Bank and the Southwestern National Bank determined to consolidate the business of the three banks under the name and charter of the First National Bank of Los Angeles. The capital was increased to $1,250,000; the surplus and profits were $2,860,000, while the deposits aggregated $13,630,000.

Deeming it advisable to have a connected institution to take care of trusts, mortgage loans and estates, an arrangement was made whereby the officers of the First National Bank, as trustees for its stockholders, acquired all of the stock of the Los Angeles Trust Company and the Metropolitan Bank and Trust Company, these institutions later being consolidated and the name changed to the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank.

In September, 1910, when the stock of the First National Bank was increased to $1,500,000, the capital of the affiliated institution was raised to $1,500,000, the capital of the affiliated institution was raised to the same figure, and at the present time each owner of stock in the First National Bank has the same number of shares of the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank held in trust for him by the trustees.

The capital of each bank was this year increased to $3,000,000. An adequate idea of the growth of the First National Bank of Los Angeles and the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank is given by the combined statements of condition of November 15 last, showing combined resources of $121,503,637.85.

With its growth, the Los Angeles Trust and Savings Bank has put into operation many branch banks, the location of which have been selected with the convenience of its patrons in mind. The other branches, in addition to the Eighth and Olive Branch, and the Wilshire Boulevard Branch, are as follows: Second and Spring, Pico and Grand, Seventh and Central, Washington and Main; Glendale Avenue, and Brand Boulevard, Glendale; Huntington Park, and Avalon, Catalina Island.

GIRL IS HURT

THROWN FROM HER HORSE AND WRIST BROKEN; REFUSES TO TAKE ANAESTHETIC

Miss Carrie Comport, 16 years old, who resides with her parents on their ranch near Silver Lake, was hurled from a horse she was riding near Edendale yesterday afternoon and bones in her wrist broken in the fall. She walked to a real estate office near the end of the Edendale car line, stepped into an automobile and was driven to the receiving hospital in Los Angeles for treatment. She refused an anaesthetic and, later, went to her home.

Gift Of Nearly $250 At Lutheran Church

The true Christmas spirit was manifested by the large congregations at both the special Christmas night service and the Sunday services at the Lutheran church.

"Adoration," a musical program by Shawker, was given by a large chorus on Saturday evening, and was a much-enjoyed feature. The large Christmas tree was resplendent with the usual Christmas tree decorations and held a gift for every person who attended the service.

Gifts were given as well as received; special offerings that will bring joy to others were made by the church and the Bible school. A contribution of nearly $250 was made at the Sunday morning worship, when Dr. Funk, the pastor, spoke on the subject, "No Room in the Inn."

The House Immigration committee is planning to introduce a bill providing almost air-tight restrictions on immigration.

BANKS MERGER

PASADENA AND LOS ANGELES
INSTITUTIONS ARE JOINED,
IT IS ANNOUNCED

The present board of directors of the Union banks will constitute an advisory board, of which Frank C. Bolt will be chairman, while H. I. Stuart will act as chairman of the executive committee. C. J. Hall, as chief trust officer, will be in charge of the trust department and savings business as heretofore. W. A. FAMILY REUNION

ABOUT FIFTY RELATIVES AT QUACKENBUSH HOME FOR CHRISTMAS PARTY

Mrs. J. A. Quackenbush, 1119 East Colorado street, celebrated Christmas by having a family reunion. A very delightful program was arranged for the evening, including a Christmas song and prayer, recitations by the little folks, Evangeline Quackenbush, Joy Miller, Sunny Sunkes, Harold Armstrong, Pearl Taylor, and Harvie Taylor; songs by Faith Turling and Hazel Walters, and piano selections by Mrs. W. A. Braden. Santa Claus distributed gifts from the tree to all the guests. About fifty relatives from Los Angeles, Watts and Glendale joined in the good time.

Christmas Celebration To Be Held Tonight

St. Mark's Episcopal Sunday school will hold its Christmas celebration in the Sunday school room this evening at 8 o'clock.

A short service for the children, conducted by the Reverend Dr. Cornell, will be held in the church at half-past seven. Christmas music by the choir will be part of the program.

Gifts of food, clothing and toys will be brought to the church, to be sent to the children of the church home for orphans.

Ohio Football Team Goes Thru Glendale

The Ohio football team, featured for the big game at Pasadena on New Year's day, has arrived. This morning the team and their friends were given a joyride through southern California, and naturally Glendale was included in their itinerary, as one of the show-places. Eight or ten touring cars, gaily decorated in the Ohio team's colors, passed through the business section of Glendale about 10 o'clock.

SHOWER GIFTS ON SOLDIERS

The soldier boys at Thornycroft were showered with gifts on Christmas day. They began to pour in the day before, in fact, when the Daughters of Veterans and many other Glendale friends brought baskets of fruit and other goodies.

On Christmas Eve thirty of the men were royally entertained by the Scottish Rite Masons of Los Angeles with a dinner at their temple and a program in the evening.

Individual Christmas trees were given the boys by the American Legion, and the Women's Auxiliary of the Legion also brought gifts. Numerous presents were left by other friends who called at the sanitarium; the Elks' lodge also remembered the boys with presents.

On Christmas day the Elks' orchestra gave the boys a delightful concert, a thoughtful gift, and one much appreciated by the 61 service men and women at Thornycroft, especially by those too ill to be entertained away from home.

The boys wish to express their gratitude to Gerald Delgado, chairman of the relief committee of the American Legion, members of the Legion, Glendale Elks, Women's Auxiliary of the Legion, Glendale Red Cross and to all others who helped to make their Christmas day a merry one.

The Merchants' association of New York City states the labor turnover in 1920 of skilled and semi-skilled workers will amount to 125 per cent. The turnover rate of unskilled labor is twice that.

John Bull, being a pastmaster at the art, will know how to hold his nose when he gets to trading with the Russian bolsheviks.

EMPIRE CHINA COMPANY PLANT STARTS CONSTRUCTION ON ITS FIRST UNIT

Work on the first unit of the Empire China company's factory was started last Tuesday. It is stated that the plans of the company call for an expenditure of $250,000 on the factory, the sum of $100,000 to be spent on the first unit.

The first unit, it is stated, will employ 120 men. When the plant is running to full capacity, there will be a large force at work. Recreation grounds will be provided for; there will be a tennis court, a baseball diamond and a clubhouse that will be fitted with lockers and showers.

MRS. ELVA A. HARRIS IS DEAD

Mrs. Elva A. Harris, 71 years old, died at the Mission Rest Home on San Fernando road early Friday morning. She had been a patient at the Home for four years. Funeral services will be held Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the Pulliam & Kiefer chapel, after which Mrs. Harris' son, Mark B. Harris, the sole survivor, will accompany the remains to Visalia, Calif., where interment will be made.

Mrs. Harris had resided in Glendale for ten years, making her home with her son on Arden avenue. She had resided forty years in California, coming here from her birthplace, Canada.

LITTLE BOY HIT BY AUTO

Paul Ireland, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred R. Ireland, 707 North Maryland avenue, was trying out the new coaster wagon which Santa had brought him, yesterday afternoon, when he was run over by an automobile driven by Roland A. Wright, 16 years old, of La Mesa, Calif. Paul was badly bruised about the hands and face of his new coaster was wrecked.

The La Mesa youth fortunately was driving very slowly when the accident occurred, otherwise the child would probably have been killed. Wright did not see the boy as he was looking the other way. He promised to pay for all damages.

It is an odd sort of man who does not admit deep in his heart that he deserves all the nice things that are said about him.

When women get on the police force the married street loafers will know better than to talk back when they are ordered to move on.

Probably by the time Ponzi gets out of prison his victims will have been stung by others and have forgotten him.

Be Ready for Opportunity

The man who has a Time account is prepared to take advantage of opportunities when they offer. His experience has shown him that the only opportunities that can do him any good are those which he is in a position to grasp. He knows that he must be prepared beforehand.

A Time account at this bank pays you 4 per cent interest. In case you need the money you can get it any time. Should you not pay any attention to the account your interest goes on just the same and is added to the account every six months. Such an account grows rapidly.

We invite you to open a Time account here and be in a position to grasp the next opportunity that comes your way.
